ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND CLASS SPECIFICATION

Code No. 003086
Grade P1
FLSA: N

POLICE OFFICER CANDIDATE

DEFINITION OF CLASS:

This is an instructional level position, the incumbent of which undergoes formalized training in law enforcement methods and procedures both in the classroom and in the field.

An employee in this class is assigned to an Entrance Level Training Class and instructed in a variety of subject matters for varying lengths of time. The employee's proficiency is measured through written, oral, and practical examinations, the cumulative total of which will normally determine an incumbent's retention as a sworn officer at a level immediately above Police Officer Candidate. Employment under this class includes training which is conducted on a rotating shift basis as well as weekends and holidays. Employees may be exposed to armed and dangerous persons. Instructions are explicit and supervision is provided continuously.

An employee does not earn permanent career status while serving in this class nor does the time spent serving in this class count toward permanent career status in a promoted position.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES: (Illustrative Only)

- Attends assigned classes, prepares lessons, and takes examinations.
- Works "on the job" as a patrol officer integrating that which has been learned in the classroom to real life situations in the field.
- Performs related duties in an "instructor student" relationship as required, including those generally associated with journey level sworn officer positions.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Ability to follow oral and written directions; write routine reports and correspondence; read technical literature; and calculate fractions, decimals, and percentages.
- Ability to pursue, to apprehend, and to restrain suspects and defend oneself from physical attack.
- Possess emotional stability and personal integrity as determined by an investigation conducted by the Montgomery County Government.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Experience: No previous experience in law enforcement is required.

Education: Satisfactory completion of an Associate of Arts Degree or equivalent. Current Montgomery County Police Cadets may apply during their final semester in the Police Cadet program in anticipation of and prior to attaining the required 60 college credits. Police Cadets who fail to obtain the required college credits prior to the start of the next academy class will not receive a final offer of employment.

Equivalency: Three (3) years of active duty military service with an honorable discharge or three (3) years of full time law enforcement officer experience recognized by MCPD; i.e., work as a sworn, government agent with full arrest powers eligible for rehire (Recognized) may be substituted for education.

Other: Be a U. S. citizen or a permanent legal resident of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Armed Forces who has applied to obtain United States citizenship and the application is still pending approval; and not less than twenty-one (21) years old as of the anticipated first day of employment as a sworn Police Officer.

LICENSE:

- Possession and maintenance at all times of a valid Class "C" (or equivalent) driver's license from the applicant's state of residence.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD:

Individuals appointed to this class will be required to serve a probationary period of twelve (12) months, during which time performance will be carefully evaluated. Continuation in this class will be contingent upon successful completion of the probationary period.
